

Pet License Information

Pet licenses are required in the city limits of Winnsboro for all dogs and cats over 4 months of age. A city of Winnsboro pet license is valid from the date of the rabies vaccination through the expiration date.

How do I obtain a pet license?

- 1) Stop by the City of Winnsboro Animal Service office with your pet's rabies vaccination certificate (one per pet).

One of our Animal Control Officers will approve your vaccination certificate. Pay the $10.00 registration fee and receive a Texas shaped pet license assigned to you for each pet registered.

Why License your pet?

- It is required by City of Winnsboro code of ordinances Sec. 2.01.003.
- Protection for our community's health and safety by protecting your pets and helping control the potential spread of rabies.
- If your pet ever gets lost and/or picked up by the City of Winnsboro Animal Service Officers, we will know how to contact you.
- Pet licensing helps the city maintain current data on the identification and number of pets in the City of Winnsboro.

Reminders:

- The pet license expires the same date that the rabies vaccination certificate expires.
- The owner of dog/cat can replace lost tags with current pet license and $10.00 fee.
- If there is a change in ownership of the licensed pet, the new owner (if a city resident) shall have the pet license changed to his/her name. There is no charge if the pet license has not expired.
- The city of Winnsboro has a 4 pet limit found in the code of ordinances Sec. 2.03.003
